Compassion Like Jesus

“Love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and love your _____ as yourself.”

Luke 10:27 (NIV)

“Don’t ask for tasks equal to our power, but power equal to the tasks that Christ has assigned to us.”

-Bishop Talmedge Gardner

“The Church did not stay in the upper room trying to have another Pentecost, they were launched into the Great Commission.” -Bishop Tommy McGhee

“Don’t seek justice, justice was fulfilled at the cross. Give grace. Don’t judge, that is reserved for God. Give grace. Some will reject that grace but we must still give it. Don’t decide for yourself who is open to the Gospel and who isn’t. We must risk rejection sometimes just like Jesus did. God’s faithfulness is not changed by your unfaithfulness. He is a God of mercy and love!” -Pastor Kadar Khoury

Compassion like Jesus _____ something.

“In reply Jesus said: “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, when he was attacked by robbers. They stripped him of his clothes, beat him and went away, leaving him half dead. A priest happened to be going down the same road, and when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side. So too, a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan, as he traveled, came where the man was; and when he saw him, he took pity on him. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he put the man on his own donkey, brought him to an inn and took care of him. The next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper. ‘Look after him,’ he said, ‘and when I return, I will reimburse you for any extra expense you may have.’ “Which of these three do you think was a neighbour to the man who fell into the hands of robbers?” The expert in the law replied, “The one who had mercy on him.” Jesus told him, “Go and do likewise.” Luke 10:30-37 (NIV)
